Cardinal, male

A winter's treat is to find the bright scarlet male cardinal against a snowy background. The official bird of seven states, it is a favorite of many bird-lovers and resides in all but North America's northernmost latitudes. Seen along woodland edges, thickets and in suburban gardens this beautiful bird is a delight to the eye.

This realistic carving of the male Cardinal is 7.5 inches from beak to tail, 4 inches high with an overall height of 8 inches. It is mounted on a wood stump. All of our birds are carved from basswood (a very carvable wood that does not split and takes paint well), are hand-painted with acrylic paint, have glass eyes and metal feet.

I received my cardinal in the mail and as always i was really impressed with it. The detail of the bird is really realistic. Looks like a real cardinal sitting on my entertainment center.

Magnificent carving perched on a stump. The workmanship is really good. Eyes and feet details are as good as the carving itself.
