Description

Cardinal on Branch (Male)

A winter's treat is to find the bright scarlet male cardinal against a snowy background. The official bird of seven states, it is a favorite of many bird-lovers and resides in all but North America's northernmost latitudes. Seen along woodland edges, thickets and in suburban gardens this beautiful bird is a delight to the eye.

This realistic carving shows the male cardinal on a mossy branch. It is 7.5 inches from beak to tail, 4 inches high with an overall height of 8 inches. All of our birds are carved from basswood (a very carvable wood that does not split and takes paint well), are hand-painted with acrylic paint, have glass eyes and metal feet.
