Raven

Double click on photos to enlarge.

Carved meticulously from durable basswood, a favored material among skilled carvers for its resistance to splitting or checking, this life-size carving of the Raven measures an impressive 17 inches from beak to tail, not including the base. The Raven stands proudly atop a hand-carved, moss-embellished mahogany base giving it an overall height of 21.5 inches.

Enhancing its realism, the carving features piercing eyes that bring the Raven to life and intricate detailing with a feathering pen that expertly replicates the texture of its feathers. The detailed carving of the inside of the open beak showcases the artist's attention to every minute detail.

Painted with the beauty of acrylic paints, this masterpiece is a visual delight that will capture the attention of all who behold it.

Every detail of this magnificent carving from head to talons is artistically crafted to enhance the realism of this exquisite piece.

Only one of these unique carvings is available.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to own this extraordinary carving.
